Editor's Comments

Welcome to the fourth issue of the Casement. Our present membership numbers 78 which means we have reached the goal of 1996. Gerald McLellan (ACE #75) feels that the club could grow to 200 by the end of 1996. Time will tell. Keep spreading the word. I am sure there are still a good number of collectors who have yet to hear about ACE.

As many of you are aware this is the first issue where the club auction is featured. Five members broke the ice and submitted consignments. Kindly check it out and feel free to bid if there is something that interests you. Keep in mind there is no charge for this service. If interested in consigning in the future be sure to send your lots at least 30 days prior to the issue date. This is strictly a mail bid. No call-ins. See the rules about reduced bids. If there happens to be something that you can't live without you may bid high and hope the reduced bid rule can be applied.

In this issue there are two contributions from fellow ACE members, Herman Aqua (ACE #10) gives some additional insights on the Chevy pieces and James Lawniczak (ACE #21) shares some interesting research and observations on the encased cents of the 1901 Pan-American Exposition. Also, Larry Oller sent a listing of Kansas Chevy encased. Larry is ACE member #52. Jim Hemphill (ACE #3) and Joel Reznick (ACE #29) sent their latest update on Chevy encased. Several states will be listed in this issue as well as future issues, including all for the great state of Kansas. If you have any to add inform these ACE members. A rubbing would be most helpful along with any clarifying that would be necessary. A great job by these members. I also received several more list to add to the future reference book that I am working on. Thanks much.

Our first annual meeting was held at the March 9 Chicago Collectible show. We discussed several topics of interest which follows. Rarity scale-The consensus was that it would most likely be very difficult to have any validity because of unknown mintage, unknown survival rate, limited collecting fraternity and a non-existing clearing house to serve as a tabulating center. So rarity will be put on hold for now. Herman Aqua (ACE #10) has a suggestion for the scale which is located in the section Letters from Members. ACE is still open to suggestions. Grading-very possible. ACE could use the coin grading classification, AG to BU and expand on this or borrow a page from the gaming chip collectors that use three grades, new, used and worn. What do you think? In the Potpourri/Information section some suggestions are given for using the coin grading classification. Mailing- consider a larger envelope where folding would not be necessary. This makes for a neater copy for those who like to keep back issues. Charter membership - ends August 1, 1996. Charter member numbers will not change if membership is interrupted but the number will be followed by an asterisk. Also, charter members should be sent all back issues until the supply is exhausted. Life membership- no at this time. Value - should be applied in any future reference books. Journal/Newsletter- improve pictures, use photos but necessary to have them half-toned, use rubbings or photocopy but use white background and light setting. Cost is a limiting factor. Production of an encased coin - yes, if the cost is reasonable, explore wood or plastic. Membership roster-send to any member who request one, a requesting dealer would have to join. Board of Governors- Keep informal, 3 year positions, fill by volunteers. Include addresses of BOG members in The Casement. Meetings-Annually, meet again in March at the Collectible show. If you have suggestions on how to improve ACE kindly share with a BOG member or the editor.

Members are asked to keep sending maverick lists. The more we can identify the better. Remember not to send mavericks that have a slim chance of being attributed, there has to be enough clues for possible identification.

In this issue is the first collector profile featuring Steve Drake. Kindly refer to Vol. 1, Number 2, Nov., 1995 for information needed from ACE members in order to offer this. Feel free to offer information about a fellow ACE member or answer as many questions as you care too that are included in the Nov. issue.

About the encased on the cover. This is a piece from Denver, CO and is rare because of its shape and the Buffalo nickel that is encased. It sold for $100. in a 1992 auction. It reads, Fob, 1913 D Type I Buffalo Nickel. Grand Council North American Indian Denver-1915. BR, 38x54 mm, arrowhead shape. It also commanded a $100 price tag because of the collectible subject depicted on the encasement.

New members, number, name, address and collecting interest if known will appear in the Casement. ACE members are requested to contact the editor regarding any change in name, address or any other business. New Maverick listing

Members are encouraged to send encased mavericks to the editor but not more than 50 at a time. Please do not send encased that have a slim chance of being attributed. General business chains, banks with generic headings, etc.

When sending your list of mavericks send a description and include all information on both sides, as well as the composition of the encased, size, shape, coin denomination and date of coin. If you don't care to send the list you may send the encasements. Package securely and include a check or stamps to cover return postage and insurance indicating the value you desire.

Keep in mind that members may want to contact the owner of a particular piece. So if you want your name and address to appear or to be shared if any inquiry should occur indicate that as well.

Mavericks are numbered and grouped with the first two letters of the surname or major topic. Each letter group will have its own set of numbers and each piece will also be numbered according to the order received.

A maverick has no indication of town and/or state on the encasement and in some cases even lacks the name of the issuing business or subject. However, in order to submit for attribution there has to be enough clues for possible identification and location.

Letters from Members..

"First of all I want to thank you for starting "ACE". This is a tremendous undertaking on your part and fills a big void for exonumia collectors. Your goal to have 75 members in 1996 is fulfilled with me, member #75. I suspect that by the end of 1996 we will have 200 to 300 members."

Thanks again,
G. McLellan (ACE #75)

"Your publications are great. Thank you."
James Zervas (ACE #51)

"Thanks for your response to my letter. I guess there is not too much information out there directly on encased cents. Good thing you formed this club!

If you do use my letter in the publication asking for more information, please ask people to write me at my post office box in Cleveland. (P.O. Box 14465, Cleveland, Ohio 44114) It is much easier for me to get mail there.

I bought a new encased Indian cent that wasn't on my list I sent you. Thought you would be interested in it because it is from Wisconsin. The advertisement is for Marvel Flour from Listman Hill Co. in La Crosse. It has a 1902 Indian cent in it. I enclosed a photocopy.

I also bought a new Indian encased of a merchant that is unknown to me. It is Baldwin's Standard Dried Beef, with a 1901 Indian cent in it. It looks like it was made by the same manufacturer as the La Crosse piece -- they are the same except for the hole, which was probably added later. Do you know this piece, or can your maverick program identify it?

Sincerely,
Jim Lawniczak (ACE #21)

"I saw your ad in the Numismatic News. Would like to join the encased coin club. I have been collecting encased coins for several years and am trying to complete a set of one from every state. I am missing AL, MA, MS and WY." John D. Denison (ACE #58)

"Please send me one of the 1938 RNS encased cents. I will try to get you a listing of Ill. encased in my collection for your book just as soon as I can find the time."
Chuck Berndt (ACE # 49)

"First of all, keep on with the good job in The Casement. It is really very interesting. Please include the next classified in the free section in the publication."

Cordially,
Efrain Archilla-Diez (ACE #47)

"I am collecting encased coins with emphasis on Indian Head cents. At present, my collection is small, but fascinating to me. It was recommended that I contact you by Bob Slawsky, one of the token dealers with whom I have been doing business. He says that you have established an encased coin collectors club. I am very interested in joining, and wonder if you could give me more information.

I am enclosing a SASE for your use. I would appreciate any info you could provide."

Sincerely,
Jay D. 'Dave' Watson

"Thank you for enrolling me in ACE. My collecting interests in encased cents is Iowa and any laundry company. Thanks for this assistance to our collecting category."

Sincerely yours,
Robert Lubetkin (ACE #63)

"Please enter my subscription to your quarterly newsletter/journal on encased coins. If at all possible please begin my subscription with the first issue. Also enclosed is the encased cent section from the catalog of my collection of dairy or milk tokens. Quite a few specimens have been added since I last sent you this section in 1992."

Sincerely yours,
Melvin Reiter (ACE #70)

"After seeing your ad in the sale's bid #7 for the Encased Coin Club, I'm sending you the dues needed to join. I have over 800 or more encased cents."

Thanks,
Phil Cusmano (ACE #72)

"Okay, sign me up for the encased collectors club. Enclosed is my dues. Please enter my first free ad."

Bob Slawsky (ACE # 64)

"Enclosed are rubbings of all the Oregon encased that I know of. If you have any info on others would like to have it for my needs (rubbing would be great). I had these all written up by hand so I could type and misplaced the listings, hope the rubbings will do. If any questions on any rubbings etc., let me know. I am looking forward to your book on these. I'm also keeping a log of new additions of the Chevy encased, if you get any not on the list I sent you please advise. Take care and keep up the good work."

Regards,
Jim Hemphill (ACE # 3)

"Thanks very much for sending the February 1996 copy of The Casement. I'm enclosing my check for membership. My special interests are encased Indian cents and Souvenirs of Washington, D.C. (I hope to be able to assemble a 'complete date-set of these). I can't wait for the club mail-bid auction. I have participated in a number of mail-bids, and have found them to be much more fun than 'prowling' the coin show circuit. I'm also enclosing a set of color polaroids of the only maverick I currently have. I've tried several places to find who or what Havelock Tobacco is/was, but have been unsuccessful so far. This 38mm encased must have had an interesting career since I bought it in a mail-bid auction from Australia! I've also enclosed a listing of the encased cents I now have. Thanks again for the info."

Sincerely,
Jay D. 'Dave' Watson (ACE #77)

"Your doing a great job with your mail bids and ACE."Thanks, Bryan Phillips (ACE # 22)

"Enclosed is a listing of "Kansas Chevy Encased". You can run this in The Casement if you want. Keep up the good work with The Casement. I'd like to see this part of the bobby become as fun as merchant token collecting."

Thanks,
Larry Oller (ACE #52)

"Thanks for the encased cents and the elongated! To show my appreciation, I am sending you the Maryland State Lottery encased - - given out in 1995. I spoke to the Director of Marketing for MSL, who informed me that 500,000 of these encased cents were issued. I am also sending you a Montgomery County Coin Club elongated cent. I am currently V.P. of MCCC, and their official elongated coin roller. Enjoy!

Sincerely,
Willy
William C. Massey (ACE #60)

Here's the Maryland piece, perhaps the most produced encased in History. Thanks, Willy.

Potpourri/Information

John Zelonis, Jr (ACE #36) sent ACE an interesting photo of both the Obv and Rev. of the "Temple of Music" (Pan-American Exposition; 1901 which is a hard rubber encasement. A 1901 Indian cent is encased with white letters over green, I Am Never Broke/Lucky Souvenir/Patent Applied For, orange border//pictured is the Temple of Music, also orange border. A very interesting piece.

Cost of encasements--According to Joel Reznick there is no hard and fast rule. He feels the modern pieces are worth $2 to $4. that's from the last 10 years, the 50-60's $5 to $6, the 40's $7., the 30's $8 to $15 and the 20's and down $10 and up. Again, condition and location play a major role. Jim Hemphill feels that common Oregon pieces are worth $5-$10 and the scarce ones up from there. What do other ACE members think? Joel (ACE #29) has one of the largest collections of encased in the mid west. Jim (ACE #3) collects Chevy and Oregon which was eluded to earlier.

Herman Aqua, D.D.S. (ACE #10) has some interesting thoughts on rarity. He feels R-1 to R-7 is sufficient. R-7 - 1 or 2 pieces known, R-6- 3 to 6 known, R-5 7-15 known, R-4 - 16 to 30 known, R-3 31 to 75 known, R-2 76 to 150 known and R-1 over 150 known. Dr. Aqua intends to use the above scale in a PA book that he is currently working on. He feels the only important ones are 6 & 7 because they are really the scarce or rare pieces.

He writes this about the Chevy pieces....

A note on the Chevrolet 1947-48 encased. The whole situation at that time must be put into perspective - you have to be as old as me to remember the time frame.

Remember that no cars were made during World War II. In fact, cars were not really turned out until late in 1946 and early 1947. I think that Chevrolets were being produced in quantity by 1947-48 and I think this was the way or one of the ways the Company used to let the U.S. public know that cars were available in quantity again.

I came out of the service late in 1946 and believe me there were no cars around to buy - just old, bent up pre war stuff.

That may add a little to the Chevy encased of 1948 and why they were issued.

Encased Cents Of The 1901 Pan-American Exposition by James M. Lawniczak (ACE #21)
Box 14465 Cleveland, Ohio 44114

The Pan-American Exposition was held in Buffalo, New York from May 1 to November 1, 1901. Probably the most famous thing that happened at the Exposition was that President McKinley was shot in the Temple of Music on September 6, 1901. He died in the early morning on September 14. The exposition was closed that day. To show how our system of criminal justice has changed since 1901, McKinley's killer, Leon Czolgosz, was executed on October 29 before the exposition closed!

Expositions and world's fairs were important ways of exchanging information in the world before the information explosion. The Buffalo exhibition included exhibits on agriculture, fishing, electricity, machinery and equipment. Many states and foreign countries, such as Mexico, Cuba, Honduras and Chile had exhibits.

The Exposition was held just as encased cents were becoming popular. One horseshoe variety indicates that an encased cent was patented on April 11, 1899. Aluminum had just come into popular use and was perfect for the encasements.

As you will see, there were many different varieties of encased cents related to the Pan-American Exposition. I have seen no information on who produced or distributed them or how they were given out. If you have any information, please write me. Many different types of souvenirs were given out or sold at the exposition, including paperweights, spoons, lithographed cards that were given away, and puzzles. Because one cent was real money in those days, I imagine the encased cents were sold for souvenirs, not just given out.

The following are the types of encased cent related to the Pan-American Exposition that

I have come across. If you know of any others, please write me and send a rubbing or a photocopy. I will credit you in a future update article.

The identification numbers used are similar to those used by Bryan Ryker in his article on Fankhauser encased. For short, you can just use PAE and the number, skipping the NY and BUF.

One of the joys about encased are that there are no price lists, so that you simply pay what you are willing to pay in order to have an item. Generally, most common Indian encased sell for $8-$20 depending on whether the owner has some knowledge of encased and how badly the buyer wants the item.

However, I know most of you like to know what something is worth. I do not think that there is a specific price that can be put on any piece -- only a range can be given. The prices are based on my experience for decent, EF type and more for items in better shape. Do not put too much faith in these prices -- some of them are based on only one observation.

(NY)-(BUF)-PAE-1a and (NY)-(BUF)-PAE-1b Rd, 38mm-- Four leaf clover on obverse with stem. Good luck souvenir. As the coin pressed into the die, the rim was filed down where the four clovers are and the stem is. Thus, a small portion of the rim sticks up at the spot of the stem, adding to the effect. This is more pronounced on some coins than on others. On some coins the clover stem bends to the left, pointing towards the E in Exposition (this is the 1a variety); on others it bends to the right pointing towards the P (1b variety). Both varieties seem plentiful, although the one bending to the left seems to be a little more common. I do not know why the dies were changed to make this slight change. If any of you know, let me know.

This is the most common Pan American Exposition encased and may be the most common Indian encased. PAE-1 is almost always available at any good sized show, at least in this area, near Buffalo. It is often seen in mail bids and dealer catalogs.

There are many other encased with the same four leaf clover style around the same time -- they were probably made by the same manufacturer. Examples that I have seen are a 1901 Souvenir of Niagara Falls (NY-NIA-SOU-1) (same reverse too), a 1904 St. Louis World's Fair piece (I'll let someone else put a number on this one), and a 1907 Jamestown Exposition piece, 31mm (VA-JAM-JE-1). If any of you know of any others in this style, please let me know and send rubbing or a photocopy. The cost of the PAE-1 is $8-$20.

(NY)-(BUF)-PAE-2. Horseshoe shaped, with a small buffalo facing right under the cent. This appears to be the second most common of the Pan American Exposition encased. Cost $15-30.

(NY)-(BUF)-PAE-4. Round, 38mm. On obverse, I am your mascot, souvenir Pan-American Exposition. Cost $15-$30.

(NY)-(BUF)-PAE-5. Round, 38mm, heart shape around cent. Souvenir of good luck, Pan-American Exposition. Reverse has two wishbones and says Lucky Penny Pocket Piece. Cost $10-$25.

(NY)-(BUF)-PAE-6. Wishbone shaped. Cent obverse has a four leaf clover sticking out at the top, with two horseshoes, identical to the reverse of PAE-3. The cent's reverse says Bostock's Great Animal Arena, Pan American Exposition, Buffalo, 1901. Cost $50-$120.

(NY)-(BUF)-PAE-7. Round. On the obverse, the coin is in a dustpan with the handle towards the top. Pan-American Exposition, Lucky Coin Souvenir. I have not seen the reverse. Cost $100-$150.

(NY)-(BUF)-PAE-8. Round plastic holder, 37mm, the coin does not show through on the reverse. About twice as thick as the aluminum style. Reverse has a picture of the Triumphal Arch. Perhaps this was part of a set that includes other attractions? The obverse says I am never broke, lucky souvenir. $30-$60.

(NY)-(BUF)-PAE-9. I have only seen a photocopy of this one. It is a token encased in a round aluminum encasement. The obverse says Pan-American Exposition Buffalo N.Y. The reverse says The Lucky Coin, Keep me and you will always be broke. I have no idea what it might be worth.

The Exposition was a financial failure, losing over $6 million, with attendance sparse after the President was assassinated. The final day, November 1, 1901, was declared to be "Buffalo day" in the hopes that tourists would come one last time. But it was a disaster. Few paying customers came; and those who came were destructive. The National Glass exhibit was completely destroyed.

Frank Bostock (see PAE-6), who owned the animal exhibits, had some trouble with his prized elephant on Buffalo Day and decided on a stunt to make some money. He announced a public execution of Jumbo for the next day, Saturday, November 2, at the stadium, tickets for fifty cents. He advertised that the elephant would either be hanged or choked to death with chains, pulled by other elephants.

The mayor and other city officials refused to allow such an inhumane execution to proceed. Consequently, Bostock switched to electrocution, which the city fathers approved. Over 7000 people came to watch the electrocution. Long electric wires connected Jumbo to a transformer. 11,000 volts were shot into the elephant. What happened?

I will award a NY-BUF-PAE-1 encased cent to the first person that sends me the correct answer along with some information I have asked for, such as an example of a PAE encased not listed here. I will send a 1989 Numismatic News ANA encased with a 1943 steel cent "A Steel Cent for the Steel City," to the second person who sends the correct answer plus information. I will provide the answer to the elephant question, along with any new information received, in the next issue of the Casement.

ACE Colored Slide Program on Encased Now being Planned...

The editor is currently putting together a slide presentation featuring information and examples of encased coins. Along with the slides a written format will be included that the user can follow. This then will be made available free to ACE members (except for postage and insurance both ways) to show at their local coin clubs. This will promote not only the club but also the hobby which of course is one of the objectives of ACE.

The editor has many slides of Wisconsin pieces but needs examples from around the country. Members are asked to donate slides or negatives of interesting encased from expositions and areas from around the U.S. Thanks much. J. Binsfeld (ACE #1)

Latest finds...

If you happen to have a short story about a recent encased purchase (find) kindly let the editor know we will share it with our readers. Were interested in hearing from you whether you bought, traded an encased at a coin show, shop, antique mall, whatever. In early April we spent a week in Central Florida. I did make it to one antique place on Highway 50 in Winter Park and found nothing, mostly furniture and stuff.

Grading - Kindly feel free to add any suggestions for this is the first draft.

BU-Brilliant Uncirculated-just that, fully brilliant and uncirculated, no finger prints, few if any marks, void of spots, full luster on the later date encased.

AU-Almost Uncirculated-a few more surface scratches but very few, just a hint of mis-handling, wear will be visible if at all only on the highest points and then with a magnifying glass.

EF(XF) Extra Fine-Very near AU, no wear apparent at a glance, can only be seen with close observation, a few more surface scratches, all letters bold and clear

VF-Very Fine-Wear evident on the letters and visible without aid of a magnifying glass, more surface scratches but overall detail on all letters and pictorials(if any) are clear

F-Fine -encasement worn flat at highest points but the letters are still clear, details still visible, more defects and surface scratches.

G/VG-Good/Very Good-Some of the letters are worn, most are visible, much surface wear, not pretty.

AG-About Good-half of the letters will be visible, beat up, poor shape, a filler, some areas worn smooth, carried in someones pocket for a long time or hung on a key chain for a long time, downright ugly

Generally the Very Fine and up are in collections. Trade the G/VG's but don't call VF's!!

Collector Profile..Meet Steve Drake, Omaha, Nebraska

Steve is a BOG member of ACE and is charter member #31. Steve enjoys exonomia because he feels it tells something about the history of a local area. The business location, time, advertising method among other things.

Steve enjoys doing business with Roger Winkelhake and recommends him to other exonomia collectors. Steve adds to his collection of Nebraska encased and encased from every state by doing business through the mail as well as attending ATCO which is his favorite and six to ten collectible and coin shows a year. This of course is limited to job restraints for he is employed by the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers.

Steve estimates he has about 82 different encased with a good number being from Nebraska. Steve is an advanced collector who has co-authored a book on "Coin Club Issues In Nebraska which includes tokens, medals, wooden nickels of the clubs as well as the history behind the clubs. Steve has also written several articles for his coin club newsletters. Currently he is the Regional Coordinator of the ANA, Sec./Treas. and editor of the Nebr. Num. Association and has been past president of not only the Nebraska Numismatic Association but also the Omaha and Fremont Coin Clubs. He is a current member of the above clubs as well as Central States, Iowa Num. Assoc. and Wahoo Coin Club.

Steve's future goal is to publish a book on Nebraska encased and he is currently filling his want list of an encased coin from every state as well as expanding his Nebraska collection.

And finally, Steve picked up his first encased at the 1970 Nebraska City Coin Club show and has been looking to add to his collection ever since. He has met a lot of great people along the way and has expanded his leadership ability through his club membership. Its great that ACE has such an outstanding member in Steve and we wish him well in his collecting pursuits and his coin club membership roles.
